DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1

Day 1 - Arrive in Cape Town

Your Cape Town Tour will start as you arrive in Cape Town. Our local tour representative will greet you at Cape Town International Airport and transfer you to the hotel in Cape Town. After check-in, you can take some rest in the hotel room and freshen up after a long flight. The whole day is free for you to explore the surroundings and local streets. You can feel the touristy vibes in Cape Town and view Table Mountain from almost all places in Cape Town. After dinner in the hotel, you can sleep in the hotel and prepare for the next day of adventure and sightseeing.

Day 2 - Cape Town Sightseeing tour

You will go on a full-day sightseeing tour of Cape Town today. You will start after breakfast and we will visit all the most famous tourist attractions in Cape Town. You can take the cable car ride to Table Mountain and reach the top of this iconic mountain that dominates the entire landscape in Cape Town. Table Mountain offers panoramic views of the surrounding regions, the Atlantic Ocean, and the cityscape. If the weather is not good to visit Cape Town, then you can visit Signal Hill. We will then visit the neighborhoods of Clifton Beach and Sea Point. These beaches are lined with luxury hotels, eateries, restaurants, kids' playgrounds, sushi bars, and many other amenities for tourists. After this, we will proceed to Greenmarket Square, which is a historic locality with many buildings. Here you will find flea markets where you can explore the various items and souvenirs. District Six Museum is the next attraction and this heritage museum has many exhibits relating to the history of Cape Town. We will now visit the Houses of Parliament where you can view the classical style of parliament buildings. City Hall is a beautiful building with incredible architecture. Castle is another historical monument and this is a fort with powerful construction.
After this sightseeing trip, you can relax and explore the streets of Victoria & Alfred Waterfront. Here you will find many eateries, street shopping, retail outlets, restaurants, movie theatres, and fishing boats. Later you will return to your hotel in Cape Town and spend the night here and enjoy the comforts of the hotel.

Day 3 - Day trip to Cape Peninsula Tour

After breakfast, you can go on a full-day sightseeing tour of Cape Point. This is a rocky area with tall mountains, cliffs, rocky shore, and wildlife. The secluded beaches here are very beautiful with white sands and rocky shorelines. You can go on a cruise and watch seals, penguins, and other marine creatures in their natural habitat. Cape Point is the place where the cold Atlantic Ocean and the warm Indian Ocean meet. You can view the fascinating wildlife of Cape Point Nature Reserve and visit the Cape of Good Hope, which is the southernmost point of the African continent. You can have lunch and then have a cool dip in the ocean waters (if they are not too cold). In the evening you can watch the African Penguins swimming around in Simon’s Town in False Bay. You can return to your hotel after this full-day tour and rest for the night.

Day 4 - Departure from Cape Town

You arrived on the last day of this Cape Town Tour. After breakfast, you will do check-out from the hotel in Cape Town and proceed towards the airport. We will drop you at Cape Town International Airport and you can board the flight to your hometown.
