DETAILED ITINERARY

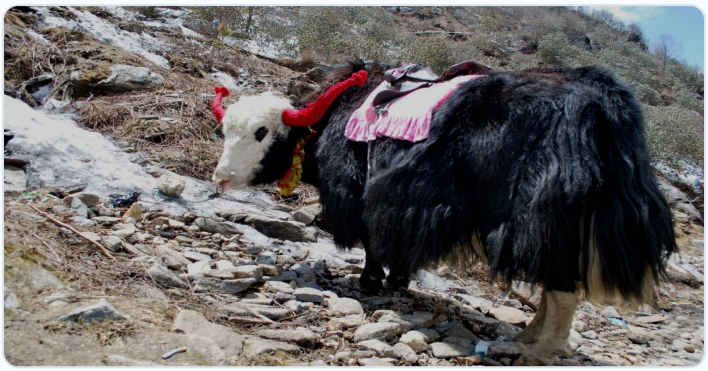

Day 1 - Arrival in Gangtok

Your North East Tour will start from your arrival in Gangtok, which is the capital city of Sikkim. We will transfer you to your pre-booked hotel after which we will drive to Tsomgo Lake. The lake is around 1-2 hours drive. Here you can go for yak rides and see the spectacular glacial lake and the tall mountains surrounding it. The most interesting thing about Tsomgo Lake is that its waters appear to change their colors at different times of the day. You can also enjoy the snowfall here if you are visiting the lake at the right time. We will also visit the famous Baba Mandir. This temple is not dedicated to any deity, but a living man who is believed to visit this place as a ghost. We will also take you to visit Nathu-La Pass. This is a mountain pass that connects India with China. You will have to take the Permit on payment and it is closed on Monday and Tuesday. You can explore the bazaar and spend the rest of the at the hotel.

Day 2 - Gangtok sightseeing + Drop

We will visit Rumtek Monastery and the guide will explain the significance of this Buddhist monastery near Gangtok. The interiors of this monastery have beautiful Tibetan décor and sculptures. You can view the golden stupa and interact with the monks here. After this, we will visit a natural wonder in Gangtok, which is Banjhakri Falls. The most exciting thing that you will do in Gangtok is to go on the Sightseeing ropeway and see the scenic panoramas of the hills, forests, and valleys. You will visit the Flower Show in Gangtok, where you will see various colorful flowers, cacti, and other plants. We will visit the Do-Drul Chorten, which is a Tibetan Buddhist Temple. We will visit the museum at the Namgyal Institute of Tibetology. After this visit, we will drop you in Gangtok.
