DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1

Day 1 - Arrival in Goa and beaches

As soon as you land in Goa, we will take you to your hotel. After some refreshments, you can start your Goa trip with a visit to the nearby beaches. We suggest Anjuna Beach, as it is one of the oldest beaches in Goa. This beach was where the hippies landed when they migrated from San Francisco to the US. Later you can visit Vagator Beach, which is a party hotspot. Arambol Beach is also one of the famous beaches in Goa. We can suggest you some popular activities on these beaches.

Day 2 - Historical church tour of Old Goa

You can spend the entire day relaxing activities and save the energy for the excitement that is to come later on this tour. We suggest you visit the Basilica of Bom Jesus, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Head to Dona Paula Beach in the afternoon, where many Hollywood movies were shot. You can then head to visit the famous Bambolim Beach and spend a quiet and relaxing evening watching the glorious sunsets.

Day 3 - North Goa beaches

You can spend the entire day visiting the spectacular beaches in North Goa. The most famous beaches in North Goa are Arambol, Baga Beach, Baga Beach, and Calangute Beach. You can dine at a popular beach shack and taste some delicious seafood if you like. At night you can visit a local nightclub at Arpora, which is the perfect place to chill out with friends. Dance if you like and drink beer with your friends. Later come back to your hotel or resort and rest for the day.

Day 4 - Mandovi river cruise

You can do a river cruise on the Mandovi river on this day. Later visit the famous Divar Island and enjoy a traditional Goan meal. Goa is famous for its lip-smacking seafood dishes and authentic Portuguese cuisine. You can then head to Baga Beach and relax there. You can later visit a nightclub or spend the rest of the day exploring a local market. Then come back to your hotel at night and rest.

Day 5 - Water adventures

You can spend this day doing some exciting water-based activities. Sinquerim Beach is the best place where you can do these adventures. You can go on a dolphin-spotting cruise and spot these playful dolphins in the ocean waters. You can have lunch with delicious Goan dishes. Later visit Calangute Beach and visit the various beach shacks for grabbing a quick bite. You can visit Anjuna Beach in the late evening, where the nightclubs are perfect for dancing and drinking. Then come back to your hotel and overnight stay.

Day 6 - Panjim

Explore the city of Panjim on this day. You can visit various forts such as Reis Magos Fort, and Fort Aguada. You can visit famous churches such as the Church of St. Augustine, the Chapel of St. Sebastian, and others. There are some famous temples also like Maruti Temple, Shri Mahalaxmi Temple, and Shri Mangesh Temple. Panjim has many buildings and monuments with Portuguese architecture.

Day 7 - Bhagwan Mahavir Wildlife Sanctuary

On this day you can reserve for jungle safari at Mahavir Wildlife Sanctuary. The birds here are best and famous for their beauty. Take a jungle safari and do some bird watching. You can visit waterfalls, and do a plantation walk. The plantations are famous for their spices. You can ride an elephant, taste a traditional Goan recipe, taste aromatic spices, and do lots of other things. Alternatively, you can visit the Dudhsagar Waterfalls, which are famous all over India for their scenic beauty.

Day 8 - South Goa

You can spend this day visiting the famous beaches in South Goa. The most famous and popular beaches in South Goa are Colva Beach, Mobor Beach, Benaulim Beach, Canacona Beach, Majorda Beach, and Agonda Beach. These beaches are more isolated and less crowded compared to the beaches in North Goa. You can watch spectacular sunsets here. Later come back to your hotel.

Day 9

Day 9 - Checkout

You can now check out from your hotel after this thrilling 9D tour of Goa. We will get you transferred to the airport or railway station as you wish.
