DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1 - Arrival in Goa

Arrive in Goa on day one of your tour and rest for a time before heading to one of the sandy beaches of Goa. The best beaches in North Goa at Baga Beach, Calangute Beach, and Anjuna Beach. You can do leisure activities like relaxation at these beaches. Do some shopping in the small bazaars that are located close to the beaches. You can taste the delicious Goan meals that your resort offers. Reserve the rest of the day for rest and sleep.

Day 2 - Old Goa churches

The second day of your Goa trip includes the magnificent churches of North Goa. You will visit Old Goa and its UNESCO World Heritage Sites which include the Basilica of Bom Jesus, Church of St. Francis of Assissi, and Chapel of St. Francis Xavier. These churches are one of the last remaining symbols of Portuguese rule in Goa. You will also visit spectacular temples like Shri Mahalsa Temple, Shri Ramnath temple, and Shri Saunsthan Goudpadacharya Temple. This day in Goa will treat you to a mix of Portuguese and Hindu traditions and culture, which you will feel only in Goa.

Day 3 - North Goa tour

Start the third day of your 7D Goa tour with the fantastic Aguada Fort. This is the very Fort that was featured in the famous movie Dil Chahta Hai. If you are looking for some more adventure, head To Dona Paula Beach, where you can do some water sports and play beach games.

Day 4 - South Goa

You will spend day 4 of your Goa tour with a visit to South Goa. South Goa is famous for its wildlife sanctuaries. You can visit any one of these famous sanctuaries in South Goa. Tourists prefer to visit famous ones such as Mahavir Wildlife Sanctuary, Bondla Wildlife Sanctuary, and Cotigao Wildlife Sanctuary. Here you can go on a jungle safari and spot birds and animals such as Hornbill, Flying Squirrel, Malabar Trogon, and many others. Be sure to book the wildlife safari in advance. After the jungle safari come back to the beaches of South Goa and enjoy the glitzy nightlife over here. You will now head to your hotel, and rest for the night.

Day 5 - Goan village

You can spend day 5 in a leisurely manner and with relaxation. You can visit a Goan village. This village is on a hill called Loutim, which is in South Goa. It is around 10 km from Margao. This is a traditional Goan village where you will experience the lifestyle of the people who reside in this village. Interact with the simple village folk, and see the handicrafts that they create.

Day 6 - Leisure day

Goa is famous for its handicraft and on day 6 of this 7D Goa tour, you will visit the handicraft industry in Goa. The artisans here create beautiful hand-made articles from traditional materials such as clay, bamboo, and coconut shells. The handicraft emporiums here are the best places for shopping for handicrafts. You can purchase souvenirs and gifts from these handicraft emporiums. Come back to your hotel shopping and rest for the night.

Day 7 - Departure from Goa

Day 7 is the departure day of your Goa. You can check out from your resort or hotel, after which we will drop you at the airport or railway station.
