DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1 - Full-Day Mussoorie Sightseeing

Kempty Falls

The best waterfalls that you will visit in Mussoorie are Kempty Falls. This waterfall is named after two words ‘camp’ and ‘tea’. They are derived from the tea parties that the Britishers organized here during their summer holidays. The cascading water that you will see in this waterfall falls into a pool below and makes a magnificent sight. The height of this waterfall is 40 feet and the water falls from mountain cliffs and deep forests. It is a favorite picnic spot for the locals and tourists who visit Kempty Falls.

- Recommended duration of visit: 60 minutes

Landour

Another famous place that we will visit in this Mussoorie sightseeing tour is a place called Landour. This is a small hill station near Mussoorie and is famous for its natural beauty, bazaars, and deep forests. You can have a very relaxing time in Landour and explore the bazaars. You can taste some delicious local food here and shop for a variety of handicraft items. Some of the things that you should buy in Landour are snacks, homemade jams and chocolates, butter, and other food products. The viewpoints in Landour offer panoramic views of the Himalayan Mountains.

- Recommended duration of visit: 45 minutes

Lal Tibba

Lal Tibba is a scenic viewpoint that offers magnificent views of the Himalayan Mountains and its summits. Lal Tibba is very famous as it offers very clear views of the snow-capped Himalayan mountain summits. You can view the deep forests, valleys, and small hills from Lal Tibba. You will enjoy a relaxing time over here. Some of the famous mountain peaks which you can spot from Lal Tibba are Nanda Devi, Trishul, Nanda Kot, and others mountain peaks.

- Recommended duration of visit: 45 minutes

Company Garden

Another famous place that you will visit in this one-day Mussoorie sightseeing tour is a garden called Company Garden. The Company Garden is a park and garden with incredible natural beauty of flowers and trees. Children will enjoy Company Garden more than adults as they can go pedal boating here in the small pond. There are many water fountains in Company Garden and deodar and pine trees and flowers which will attract you with their beauty.

- Recommended duration of visit: 45 minutes

Camel’s Back Road

Another famous place that we will visit in this Mussoorie sightseeing tour is Camel’s Back Road. The road is called Camel’s Back Road as some rocks over here are shaped like a back of a camel. These strangely shaped rock formations on this road are famous in this part of Mussoorie. People come from all over India to see the unique rock formations. Camel’s Back Road also has an old cemetery where British soldiers were buried. You can have a peaceful nature walk on Camel’s Back Road in the evening and enjoy the tranquillity and silence of this road.

- Recommended duration of visit: 45 minutes

Mussoorie Christ Church

One of the oldest places in Mussoorie is a church which is called Mussoorie Christ Church. This church is very old and it is the oldest church in the Himalayan region. It has Gothic architecture and is famous for its magnificent structure, Victorian Deco art, and surrounding landscapes. Prince of Wales visited this church during his visit to India and one of the best attractions of this church is the musical instrument which is called William Hill Organ. This musical instrument is said to be 100 years old. The church is decorated with stained glass windows and you will find many paintings which tell about the life of Jesus Christ.

- Recommended duration of visit: 45 minutes

Mall Road

Mall Road is the most famous tourist attraction in Mussoorie. This road is like the commercial center of Mussoorie where you will find many shops, restaurants, cafes, bank branches, and hotels. Mall Road also offers very scenic views of Mussoorie, the mountains, valleys, forests, and the Himalayan mountains. There are many food stalls and restaurants over here where you can dine on delicious food. You can shop for handicraft items like paintings, clothes, and other items on Mall Road.
