DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1 - Full-Day Rishikesh Sightseeing

The Beatles Ashram

One of the best popular sightseeing places in Rishikesh is the Beatles Ashram. It was here that the members of the popular rock band Beatles visited and composed many famous songs in this ashram. Beatles Ashram is a popular meditation place and the meditation halls over here are a gallery where you will see the works By the popular music band Beatles. You will enjoy the sound of birds and soak in the scenic views of the forest from the Beatles Ashram.

- Recommended duration of visit: 60 minutes

Neer Garh Waterfall

The next place that you will visit in this one-day Rishikesh sightseeing tour is a waterfall called Neer Garh Waterfall. You will have to hike for 10 to 15 minutes to reach this waterfall. There is a series of waterfalls over here and a small pool that is formed below the waterfall. You will enjoy the waterfalls and the surrounding greenery. You will feel the calmness in the air when you hear the birds chirping on the trees and beautiful cascading waters falling in the scenic pools below. The trail and hike to this waterfall is also very scenic and you will walk through beautiful forests and natural scenery and arrive at this waterfall. You can view Rishikesh and the Ganges river from this waterfall and spend some time here in silence and peace.

- Recommended duration of visit: 90 minutes

Lakshman Jhula

There is no better place that is as famous as the Lakshman Jhula in Rishikesh. Laxman Jhula is a suspension bridge that was built on the river Ganga in Rishikesh. Lakshman Jhula is named after Laxman, who was the brother of Lord Ram. It is said that he built the original bridge here in mythological times, and crossed the river Ganga. The bridge was made of a jute rope and it was later replaced by the iron bridge. It is called Lakshman Jhula in memory of Laxman. You can cross Laxman Jhula on foot and this is also one of the best activities that you can do in Rishikesh.

- Recommended duration of visit: 20 minutes

Permarth Niketan

Parmarth Niketan is an ashram in Rishikesh and it is situated on the banks of the Ganga river. Permarth Niketan offers accommodation facilities for tourists, along with meditation and Yoga courses. These activities which are offered by this ashram are very popular with tourists. You will find the huge statue of Lord Shiva in meditating position in Parmarth Niketan. You will watch students practicing yoga courses and meditation courses here. There is also an Ayurvedic massage center here which offers services at very cheap rates.

- Recommended duration of visit: 30 minutes

Triveni Ghat

Another famous place that we will visit in this full-day sightseeing tour of Rishikesh is Triveni Ghat. This ghat is said to be the place where three holy rivers, the Ganga, Yamuna, and Saraswati meet. Triveni Ghat is an immensely sacred place and the aarti which is held here in the evening is a very popular event to participate in. People chant holy mantras and sing songs of devotion in the evening at Triveni Ghat. The temple priests hold burning lamps and chant prayers in devotion to the Ganga River. This unanimous chanting and the sound of gongs and drums make the entire atmosphere electrifying and sacred. Devotees float burning diyas into the Ganga river and it is one of the best sights to behold here at Triveni Ghat. It is said that the waters of this ghat are so pure that they will purify your evil sins.

- Recommended duration of visit: 50 minutes

Ram Jhula

Another famous bridge that you can visit in Rishikesh is the bridge called Ram Jhula. Ram Jhula is a river bridge that is named after Lord Ram of the Ramayana mythology story. Ram Jhula offers very scenic and beautiful views of Rishikesh and the river Ganga. You can walk on Ram Jhula on foot and reach many places in Rishikesh.

- Recommended duration of visit: 30 minutes
