Discover Rich Heritage with our All Rajasthan Tour Packages

Rajasthan is a state where there is culture, royalty, wilderness, and adventure. It has preserved its forts, havelis, and palaces admirably. All Rajasthan Tour Packages by Here4Trip include a trip to these heritage places. The heritage stepwells of Rajasthan, the havelis, and medieval forts are the living examples of this culture. The museums also have preserved this heritage of Rajasthan. Jaipur has the oldest museum in all of Rajasthan. The folk culture can be seen in tribal shows and performances. Jaisalmer is one place where you can stay in luxury desert tents and enjoy the tribal dance.

But beyond the heritage, Rajasthan also has adventure in its land. National parks in Rajasthan are places where you can view rare creatures. The Ranthambore Tiger Safari immediately comes to mind when speaking of national parks. But bird watching is another thing you can do in Rajasthan. Places include Bharatpur, Khichan, Sariska, and others. There is adventure in the form of activities like trekking, ziplining, paragliding, and hot air balloon rides. In Udaipur, you can visit many lakes and go boating. There are places like Kota and Bundi, which are historic and touristy. There is so much to do in Rajasthan. Couples, families, solo travellers, hikers, trekkers, and adventure lovers can plan a trip to Rajasthan and have a thrilling time here.

For example, plan a romantic honeymoon to Gangtok, or a pilgrimage to the Uttarakhand Char Dham Yatra. We also cover the hill stations in Tamil Nadu and northeast India. You can plan a trip to Rajasthan, where you can visit Jaipur, Jaisalmer, Jodhpur, and other cities. We also have thrilling adventure activities like scuba diving in Goa, kayaking in Kerala, and trekking in Himachal Pradesh. International tourists want to seek a spiritual experience in Haridwar and Rishikesh during Kumbh Mela. So it is time you plan a trip to India and enjoy a thrilling time.

Best Month to Visit Jaisalmer

Jaisalmer is not an all-weather destination. You cannot visit Jaisalmer during the summer months. The period from March to August is the off-season in Jaisalmer. Not many tourists visit Jaisalmer during this season. The daytime temperatures reach scorching levels. The heat of the sun is felt during the daytime. Rains fell during July, and although there was not a huge downpour, it was enough to make the place wet. So the best month to visit Jaisalmer is from October onwards until the first week of March. The days are cool and the sun is bright and not too hot. Nighttime temperatures can be a bit cold. It is always this time that is perfect for sightseeing in Jaisalmer.

Seek Sightseeing and Adventure with our Jodhpur Holiday Package

DETAILED ITINERARY

Mehrangarh Fort

Undoubtedly, the number one tourist attraction in Jodhpur is the towering and massive Mehrangarh Fort. The fort is situated on a hill and its height enables it to be seen from any part of Jodhpur. The fort was built in 1459 and is one of the largest forts not only in Rajasthan, but the entire India. It has massive walls, strong defenses, and powerful bastions and ramparts. There are huge palaces, temples, courtyards, and arched gates inside the Mehrangarh Fort. You will still see the cannonball marks on the outer walls. The museum inside has royal exhibits of palanquins, elephant howdahs, miniature paintings, royal costumes, weapons, cradles, vintage furniture, turbans, and other relics. The various palaces which you can visit inside are Phool Mahal, Moti Mahal, and Sheesha Mahal.

- Recommended duration of visit: 120 minutes

Jaswant Thada

Another famous Jodhpur sightseeing attraction is Jaswant Thada. This is a memorial made entirely of white marble stone. Jaswant Thada is very close to Mehrangarh Fort. This monument is also called the Taj Mahal of Jodhpur. There is an incredible architecture that you will notice first in Jaswant Thada. The tall pillars, gazebos, spires, and chhatris are sculpted with exceptional architectural finesse. Maharaja Sardar Singh built Jaswant Thada in 1899 for his father Maharaja Jaswant Singh II. There is a small lake and a lush green garden beside the cenotaph.

- Recommended duration of visit: 60 minutes

Umaid Bhawan Palace

Perhaps there is no better example of the royal heritage of Jodhpur than the massive palace called Umaid Bhawan Palace. This palace is world-famous across the world as the largest private residence. Umaid Bhawan Palace is a marvel of the highest architectural skills. Its magnificent structure can be viewed even from Mehrangarh Fort. The royal family of Jodhpur still resides in one of the portions of Umaid Bhawan Palace. One part is a museum where you can view priceless objects such as costumes, weapons, vintage cars, stuffed leopards, photographs, and other relics. Umaid Bhawan Palace was built to employ the hundreds of poor people of Jodhpur who were rendered unemployed due to famine. There are more than 300 rooms and royal suites, courtyards, banquet halls, landscaped gardens and lawns, and dining rooms, in this palace.

- Recommended duration of visit: 90 minutes

Mandore Garden

You will see the ancient capital of Mandore on this full-day sightseeing tour of Jodhpur. Mandore Gardens is a complex of many memorials and temples. These memorials have the most incredible architecture and feature traditional chhatri designs and tall spires on top of them. Ravan Temple, the chhatri of Maharaja Ajit Singh, and Hall of Heroes, are three of the most significant structures that you must see in Mandore Gardens. The folk gods and heroes are the main deities of the temples over here. Huge lawns, and terraced gardens, surround these temples and memorials making them appear even more scenic.

- Recommended duration of visit: 40 minutes

Old City Clock Tower

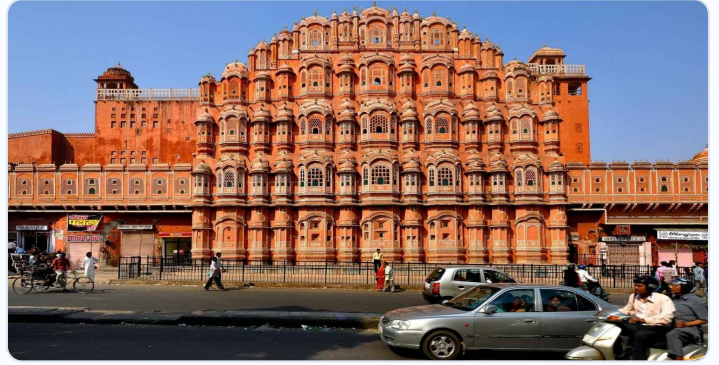

The Clock Tower in the old city of Jodhpur is about 100 years old and was built by Maharaja Sardar Singh. It is one of the gates to the old city of Jodhpur. The market around the Clock Tower is a buzzing market where you can shop for bangles, jewelry, pickles, shoes, handicraft items, and many other things. You can climb on top of the Clock Tower and view the surrounding area of Jodhpur. There are many food stalls, and restaurants, offering delicious food around Clock Tower.

- Recommended duration of visit: 40 minutes

Sardar Government Museum

This Sardar Government Museum is a museum that you can visit on your full-day Jodhpur sightseeing tour by car. The museum offers a window into the royal past of Jodhpur. Maharaja Umed Singh built this museum in memory of his father Maharaja Sardar Singh. You can visit various exhibits that range from sculptures, armory, miniature paintings, terracotta objects, coins, inscriptions, and metallic objects. You can also visit the zoo and library.
